

Manuscript Guidelines

Originality: Articles submitted for publication become the sole property of the West Virginia Medical Journal. Prior publication is unacceptable. The Publications Committee reserves the right to edit any material submitted. Scientific articles are to be prepared in accordance with the “Uniform Requirements for Submission of Manuscripts to Biomedical Journals.” Please go to www.icmje.org for complete details.

Authors: A cover letter from the corresponding author should be submitted with the manuscript. Persons listed as authors should have participated sufficiently in the work to take public responsibility for the concept. No more than six authors will be listed. Other contributors may be recognized in an acknowledgement.

Format: Submit articles by email or on CD. Microsoft Word is preferred, but other programs are acceptable. All tables or figures should be created separately from the body of the manuscript as .tif, .jpg or .pdf files in a high resolution format with corresponding file names such as, Table 1, Figure 1, etc. Legends should be included for all tables and figures.

Style: Manuscripts are to be limited to 2500-3500 words and approximate the style adopted by the American Medical Association as illustrated in JAMA and detailed in the AMA's Manual of Style. An abstract of 150 words or less should accompany each manuscript, stating the exact question considered, the key points of methodology, key findings, and the conclusion directly supported by the findings.

References: References should be prepared in accordance to the “American Medical Association Manual of Style.” These instructions for authors are available online at www.jama.com.

Photographs: Photos are printed in black and white. Please submit digital files either from a digital camera or scan at 300 dpi at 100%.

Please send articles to the managing editor via email: angie@wvsmj.com. For additional information, contact Angela L. Lanham, Managing Editor, at (304) 925-0342, Ext. 20.
